

Offer Cultural Studies Courses in Your School

In November 2020, the Georgia Department of Education approved seven new social studies elective courses!

Your school can now offer these courses...

Intro to African American Studies

Intro to U.S. Latinx Studies

Intro to Asian American Studies

Intro to American Indian Studies

Intro to U.S. Women's Studies

Holocaust & Genocide Studies

Civil Rights in the United States

Act

Quality cultural studies courses incorporate active community engagement, supporting students to take action for meaningful change in their community.

Connect

Cultural studies courses highlight the importance of centering student narratives. Students learn from each other, gain empathy and build mutual understanding.

Grow

Cultural studies courses help reflect the history and present of Georgia's public school students, 61% of whom are students of color.

Advocate for these courses to be offered in your school!

- ✓ Contact your school board and talk about your interest in these subjects.
- ✓ Organize coalitions of community members who also want these courses.
